About Me

(I am shy at first but once you get to know me im so much fun) I enjoy playing games and the outdoors however I can make inside play just as entertaining and enjoyable!! I would like to help you as parents help your kids reach their goals as well as yours!! Most importantly your children's safety and happiness are my two biggest priorities!! With that being said communication with the parents is very VERY important to me!! Id like to find a family who can be very open and honest with me!! Also I have a nephew that is now 10 months old that I watch frequently!! He has had multiple health issues but is doing much much better now!!
