Wife works at flower store, can't send flowers, saved me a few bux, wanna upgrade her diamond solitare earrings I have $500 to spend, I know if will go farther here than at the mall, and do more good she really only likes white gold, or platinum - if yellow gold, will need to consider the cost of resetting send pix, description, specifications (to best you remember) - I will email all back, may just be to say 'mahalo, but no mahalo' - but if you go to the trouble to send me something, I will do you the courtesy to reply.
Ideally I will get a reply that I can not pass up, and meet at a mall jewelry store (or pawn shop) to test the diamonds - the tester turns green, I hand you the green =)
Mahalo
email only as this is a surprise - would like to have something done on this
