The TimBookTu website, a leading resource for African-American fiction, poetry and essays since 1996 is seeking fiction, nonfiction, poetry, erotica, commentary, spoken word video and podcasts, and related writing from writers in the Hartford area for its Summer online issue which will be posted in July. TimBookTu features writing that relates to and highlights the African-American and black cultural experience. We feature book reviews and monthly columns on contemporary topics.

For more information and to review our submission guidelines, please visit us at www.TimBookTu.com.

All work must be submitted through our website. Please do not submit your work to this posting.

The deadline to submit your material is June.
