Pomeranian to good loving home.

Location Delaware https://www.genclassifieds.com/x-505052-z

I am trying to re-home my fathers 2 or 3 year pomeranian. Unfortunately he passed away recently and i simply cannot take the poor girl.

I dont want to charge a fee aslong as i know the new home can afford to love a pomeranian. They are not low maintenance dogs, please do some reading if you have any questions about breed needs.

Ill put some pictures up soon or send by request via text or email.

Shes a real sweet dog who is great with children, dogs and cats. My dad adored her, and he would want me to find a new home instead of taking her to the.
