We are looking to sign on 2 actors or actresses for a couple YouTube channels that we are currently in the process of building. One of the channels will focus on beauty and/or fashion tips. We want this channel to have heavy emphasis on tutorials and tips. The second channel will be focused on health and fitness, with some educational pieces on the values of healthy living and some workout videos. Both channels will require weekly uploads. If you are interested in becoming a brand on YouTube, please reply to this letting us know any experience you have in regards to the respective channel, how often you would be available for video shoots, and send us a head shot. Hope to hear from you.
