We are in need of a very good cook for a mid-sized yacht of just under 100 ft. Must be well versed in delicious healthy cooking and very eager to help out in other capacities on the yacht from time to time, such as: deckhand and steward. The yacht will be departing South Florida very soon, traveling up the Eastern US and staying North until autumn when they plan to head back to South Florida. Those with yachting experience will receive priority in the interview process. Background check and drug screening may be required. Please forward your resume and salary history. We look forward to potentially working with.
