Ride-share Opportunity!

Hello fellow travelers,

My partner and I are driving from Asheville, North Carolina, to Grand Rapids, Michigan, at the beginning of July 2015. We have a late model eight passenger/seat belt C-class RV, and are interested in sharing the road and expense of fuel with intelligent, clean and sane adults, who know how to be respectful travel companions. We are educated, easy-going progressive type folks, who most enjoy kind hearted, peaceful people.

If this sounds like a bit like you, and you need to travel on July 1st, north bound, from and to cities along I-75, this could be the train for you. If interested, please let us know what your travel plans are, and we will respond with the cost of your portion of the expedition, along with other questions we may have. Basically, we are asking for 0.20¢ cents per mile to cover costs. It is our discretion who we travel with, so a photo and description of who you are would be a good way to start to build our confidence in you.

Travel Details:

Departure: July 1st, 8:00am, from Asheville, NC

*Indianapolis or Columbus departures would need to make their own arrangements to travel the 50 miles to be picked up in Vandalia, at the Speedway fuel station off of EXIT 63, as we do not plan to detour that far from I-75.

*Payment, in cash, for your leg of the journey is required in hand, before your departure.

*Pickup/Drop-off locations will be arranged via email, text, or phone.

*All arrangements need to be made and confirmed prior to June 30th, and are kept confidential along with any personal information. (We expect our own right to privacy, and would offer nothing less to anyone we meet!)

*Our return trip is planned for July20th but not yet posted, so keep it in mind if that works your schedule and let us know.

Thank-you for looking and be sure to share with a trusted family member or friend that may need a ride.

Blessed be!

Sincerely, E:-)
