We were cleaning out a relatives house and found 4 bags worth of camera equipment. Here is what is in each bag:

Bag 1: Minolta XG 9 Camera with MD Rokkor-x 50 mm lens (and very worn case). 2 Vivitar polarizing filters, Mitakon 80-200 mm lens with case, Albinar ADG 28 mm lens with case, Minolta auto25 flash with case.

Bag 2: Minolta 5000 Camera (marked as iffy/use for parts) with a Minolta camera strap. Minolta Maxxum 2800 AF flash (marked as works) with case. Minolta Maxxum 1200 AF flash (marked as works) with case.

Bag 3: Canon AE-1 camera with case and Canon 50 mm lens. Canon camera strap (great shape), Canon speedlite 188A flash with case, Focal 70-210 mm lens with case, and a bunch of manuals.

Box 4: Canon Rebel EOS 2000 kit. This includes the camera and the lens.

We would love to sell all of the cameras together. You could mix and match and/or sell parts to make some money. We would take $100 for everything. Like I said, you could keep what you want and sell the rest and come out ahead. I just don't have the time right now to sell everything separately.
