Cute 7mo old Yorkie, Female, her name is Dolly. I bought her for my ex but she couldnt manage her alone and Im out of town for work often so Im looking for a permanent home for her. She is a very friendly and playful thing, very sweet. She needs a bit of work in the house training department as well, shes great in the crate but still needs work. She has her own bed, crate, carrier, collar and leash.

We paid 1400 for her but at this point I just want her to have a home, hopefully with lots of children around. I think 800 is fair but nothing is set in.
