A professional Arabic Language Tutor with experience teaching Arabic to non-native speakers both in the US and outside. Now in CHICAGO

I am available to help students and non-native speakers of Arabic in improving their abilities in both Classical/Fusha/MSA, as well as the dialects of the Levant and Egypt.

I am intimately familiar with the methods of instruction used for teaching Arabic in American universities and have worked for a number of years with the Al-Kitab textbook series. I am available for tutoring/assistance with Arabic coursework at all academic levels, as well as instructing all levels of learning Arabic as a foreign language from beginners to the advanced, including: spelling, writing, grammar, conversational and listening skills.

Sessions can be one-on-one or in groups, per student preference.

This is a great opportunity for current students of Arabic to get the extra help that they need to excel in their coursework and to actually use Arabic outside of the classroom! This is also a fantastic chance for those people who may not have access to university Arabic instruction to begin learning the language.

I have a flexible schedule and am willing to meet for sessions at places most convenient for you whether its your home, coffee shops, libraries, universities, etc. If you are interested in booking a session please
