Hi, I'm looking for a roommate(s) to live in the city with. Preferably female! I would be willing to move into a unit or look for a unit together with you.

I currently work fulltime in West MI. I'm looking to move to Chicago around July or early August before classes start. I will be attending Loyola University so I am looking to live north of Chicago in between Uptown and Lincoln Park or any of the neighboring areas. I'm hoping to find something that's no more than 850$ a month including utilities.

I'm 20 yrs old, clean and very laid back, but I also like to have my fun. I never bring the party home as I like to keep the area clean and reasonably quiet. A nice night in is also very much enjoyed and appreciated. :)

I would prefer a private bed and bath, but if the unit is worth it I'll settle for a shared bath.

Please feel free to reply to this email and put "Room Available" in the subject line so I know you're not. :)
