I'm looking to add a few fresh faces to my series and my cast this year. We're interested in anyone looking for the experience. Due to the nature of the content in the films, we generally stay clear of individuals under the age of 18 - any under the age of 18 will not be considered. They are thriller films, with an added element of gore, as well as sexual innuendos and themes. No nudity or pornographic materials will be produced.

The series is primarily about a demented madman, who has taken on the guise of a hobo clown that protects a particular stretch of forest. I'm hoping to keep the same cast for the 5-film series. Careful scheduling will be implemented for this. This is the originally planned introductory series that failed to meet production last year. So I'm doing them this year.

Interested in all varieties of people. Females are highly encouraged to come forward. Open-minded and creative individuals are preferred.

Please submit a headshot for consideration.

And please have reliable transportation.

Shoots will normally take place on Saturdays, for a few hours. That's (hopefully) the most anyone will ever be asked. The films generally range from 8 to 15 minutes and will ultimately go on YouTube. As far as locations, it will vary from St Charles county and North County, in the StL area.

We have a group on FaceBook that was started last year, and a FaceBook account would be really beneficial, as that is where everyone will be kept updated.
