It is a simple camera and it works.

Digital camera $15

Aiptek digital camera/video recorder

"it does the deed" as in if you need to take a picture it takes a decent picture

It takes at least as good of a photo as the picture of the camera on the ad, that is not a great picture and it should take a better picture than the one shown.

it does have a memory card in it.

I will sell the camera for $10 because I do not have the cord. It will cost up to $5 for a replacement cord at an electronics store or about $1 at Free Geek or similar stores.

You can often find a cord for it on craigslist for $1-5. It is either Mini USB or Micro USB, if you are interested in the camera I will confirm which it is.

I did some research and I found three comparisons

1. Amazon (out of stock)
2. eBay (out of stock)
3. Craigslist (buy now or make an offer)
