I am looking for someone to take care of my three rats. They are all boys. The oldest is about 2 and a half. And the other two are about 1 and a half. They get along pretty good with each other but they get a little rough sometimes which you will need to stop them from going to far. When I say take care of them, I mean keep them healthy and happy let them out to play and feed them and give them water. they are a little sketchy around humans but if you play with them regularly, I do not doubt they will be absolute sweethearts. Please do not take them just for fun. They NEED a good home and they NEED someone to play with them and keep them HEALTHY. they have no problems right now at all. I only want the best for them so I want to make sure they go to a good home.

Only serious buyers please $165- price includes everything. The cage alone is $240 any questions please text or call.
