

I am reposting this as a device needed was backordered and finally arrived pushing back my set up schedule. I will pay for your Gas to and fro from Portland as I know it is a jaunt. A lovely one though! Here is my Original posting. I will do the Soundproofing no worries!

I have a 30" Cinema Display(With all the proper adapter cord to jerry rig ordered new) The new 15" Mac Pro with 16 gb and new Daw Logic pro and Masterwriter installed on the new Mac pro this is all that is on the computer. A New desk,chair, and new Mackie Interface,small Mackie mixer board, two Audio Rocket Monitors a Rode arm bom two mics for USB one Yeti another a Shure with a USB thing to make it be a two fold Mic.A Rode Usb Mic with pop shield. A 49 key Midi controller.Plus two shock mounts and an audio sound booth that can be mounted or the Mic stand or sit on the desk. Right now my husband did assemble it on the Mic stand which has a new Peavy arm boom. Also I have a new little Peavy Amp that can do all sorts of things but plugs into the computer somehow as well. To some this would be quite easy but am a creative gal and have no clue about cords.Also I have had spine surgery so I can not lift. I am on The Portland Songwritersorg website where it says "Join" I am the gal on the far right. I won a showcase and was a Top Five finalist for song of the year. I have lived in Nashville after taking first place in a National singing competition.Single parenting made me soon realize the kids came first. No way to raise my kids proper so I came back home. it paid off as my son Graduated from the Yale School of Drama and was just on NBC two weeks ago and was on the good Wife in a few weeks playing a guy named Jeff who is the one killed (I know not good for a mama to watch) My daughter has her Masters and works full time in Portland.This is my resume, so I will need a bit about you too!My husband is very handy but too busy.

the sound proofing I will do. It is just in a small home office. I just need a smart tech person to come and everything up. If you can how it will be some one who can send me to the sure need help. Please! I hope you can help me. I will be your Gabe. No snoots I want to keep things and make it work as my back has prevented me from doing some things I need to do. I will be on there as well but after the 1st I will take the lead and do the proper although some are well produced others are not. Thanks so much! I pray you can help!

Remodeling is finally done and we can now move forward with this project. If you are out there, We are loved your...
