Hello Portland!

I have been working here as a dog sitter and lately business is booming. Which is wonderful but at the moment it is only me. I have begged my friends to take some of these jobs but they are usually busy. I am looking for some really reliable and trustworthy people who are excellent with animal care. If you have house and animal sat in the past I would love to meet you! I have a job coming up that I need covered and if we are able to meet soon enough and your a good fit for us then the job is yours.

I am also looking for someone I can call when a dog is too physically large for me to handle (yes, I am a tiny girl and sometimes the dogs walk- i should say drag- me. This was especially frightening in the case of the Great Dane who decided to charge after a cat one day.....shudders).

So if you are curious or interested and have the time to meet, this is a great way to get some exposure to our clients, have an additional source of income, and to meet some pretty amazing animals!!! (And people too). It would be a great help to me in maintaining good relationships with my clients when I personally am unable to help them, instead of leaving them hanging. You would also get a bio page on our website as a sitter and have exposure through our social media pages if you so choose. You can see the website here (it is currently being built): amaykate.wix.com/pdxpetcare

And just so you know I am not a catfish or anything our instagram is: @PETCARE_PDX

I would love to start interviews as soon as tomorrow even so shoot me and email if you have the time and lets connect! :)

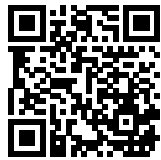

Thanks!
