Hi. I've got 3 Siberian kittens left. Rare kittens, they are very smart. These are not like a regular street kitten. They have been dewormed and have been flea treated. Ready to be adopted.
 Do your research on this breed before writing. Don't email me asking if they are still available I wont answer. If this ad is still up then the kittens are still available. There is a rehoming fee.
 If you are interested in a kitten email me and we'll set up a time and place for
