A Star Chart is a snapshot of the sky at the moment you were born.

Astrologers have been reading the skies since 3,000 B.C.E. A full reading can give you the insight you've been looking for in terms of life, prosperity and love.

Please copy the form below and send in an email along with any questions or specific areas you would like me to focus on. All charts will be sent through email along with detailed information about how it evolves your chart. They will be accessible through your email at all times.
