My name is Jon Ardito. I studied music at The University of the Arts and have over 20 years of drumming experience. For the past 6 years I have provided private and group lessons to over 100 beginners, intermediates, and advanced level players.

Lessons cover a broad range of topics. You will learn cool beats, exciting fills, mixed sticking exercises, how to sight read, technique development, hand-foot coordination, and ultimately how to develop comfort around the drum set. Students will also explore various styles such as jazz, rock, latin, funk, hip-hop, fusion, metal, reggae, etc. Call or e-mail me today to get started.
