  NEWPuppy Tweets Pink electronic dog tag sends messages to your home computer, then Tweets to you. Ever wonder what your pet is doing while you're not home? Find out with Puppy Tweets! This special electronic dog tag has a sound and motion sensor that translates your furry friend's barks and activity levels into funny tweets posted on the Twitter website, like, "I finally caught that tail I've been chasing and....OWWWCCHH!" Follow your pet's Twitter feed via computer or smart phone all day long. Just attach the pink Puppy Tweets tag to your dog, connect the included USB receiver, download the simple software, and create a Twitter account for your furry pal (you just might find yourself howling with delight!). It's one sweet pet owner gift!

 By Mattel 2010. Mac & PC compatible. Recommended for medium and large dogs.
