International touring band in the style of A Perfect Circle, Deftones, SOAD, Tesseract, Soundgarden, Alice in Chains, The Mars Volta, auditioning for a new drummer.

Right now the band is on 12 month long tour of USA and Europe.

The band is unsigned and self-managed with an impressive resume. They have done 5 tours of USA and Europe in the last 18 months covering 11 countries and are looking at 240+ shows in 2015.

The band is looking for a full time, long term band member. The band makes enough money touring to pay for all expenses for everybody, that means you can quit your much hated, crappy job and leave your loser friends behind and start living the life you have dreamed about! Remember 99% of musicians say they want it, but they never really go for it. Where do you stand?

This is a unique opportunity to join a band who is about to go huge and who has everything already going, including a famous rockstar doing a feature appearance on their new single and a dream come true Class A Tour Bus!

The candidate needs to have a valid passport or apply for it soon, be a skilled drummer, use double pedal, be really good on the click, be able to use technology since you will be required to, have a good drum kit and be willing to fit in with the band's image.

This is NOT a gig for a session guy! This is a gig for a drummer who wants to be in the next TOOL, SOAD or Deftones and is capable to fill in those shoes in any and all aspects. Don't be afraid to apply if you have no touring experience or a big resume, as long as you fit the other criteria and love what we do.

This is a time-sensitive opportunity that will be closed quickly.

When ready please send:

A clear photo link to it
 Facebook profile

Basic bio including age, location, past and present projects
 Possibly a Video or Audio of you playing in a style compatible to the Alt/Metal Modern Rock bands above.

The band is based in Hollywood CA but the audition is open to drummer anywhere in USA, Canada, Europe and Australia.
