Hey everyone, my names Chris, im driving up to Bozeman Wednesday morning with Seattle as out ultimate destination. I need to visit some friends in montana but my gas budget is nearly gone (been driving from Florida!) so I'm looking for someone to help with most of the gas in exchange for a ride. I have an Acura TL with a little space for stuff. Basically the front seat and back seat is open with space for you and your things. I'm 24, clean, non sketchy type (im an artist I'm free time) and probably have done 50+ rideshares and loved them all, mostly. Haha. So if you need a lift send me a text or email and we'll work something out! Safe travels
