I know this is a shot in the dark, but I'm hoping that posting this will bring some sort of law of attraction into my life.

Im a 22 year old female,
My savings are gone, my roommate left me to pay the the entire rent that I can't afford and I'm paying for my school tuition monthly.

I'm new to the city still and I've been hoping for a miracle the last couple months, but nothing has deemed itself.

I need $2000 asap or I'm getting kicked out of the school of my dreams :(

If there is anyone who knows a place hiring, let me know please.
