Looking for a real life, gritty, script about your average American family. Looking for deep, well developed characters. Ensemble cast, something out of the ordinary, and somewhat in the vein of Silver Linings Playbook. Does that mean I'm looking for an Academy Award worthy script? Absolutely! Now you're asking why am I looking on Craigslist. Believe it or not, I have found some real gems here and just finished shooting one in Mississippi. We produce a few films a year and have the funding in place for our next one. Please submit synopsis, resume, and IMBb if.
