IRON MAN - Animal ID # is A1036123 a neutered male pit bull mix, about 5 YEARS old, weight 57.8 LBS, Excellent evaluation. Police found Iron Man tied up with bed sheets on the corner of 227th and 104th st. During intake Iron Man was Super excited, Really curious, Loose body, wagging tail. At evaluation Iron Man was excited but very interested in interacting with handler, had soft body language, no guarding or handling issues, friendly with helper dog. When off leash with other dogs, Iron Man greeted politely and playful with both males and females. He appears to be house trained and sits on command. He pulls a bit on the leash, but very responsive to corrections. Very affectionate and lovable dog.

TODAY - LAST DAY!

... writes: "I was posing on the metal, head down, his one eye was following very closely. He looks like a fish out of water. He is a very brave dog. In fact, he was told that he was happy when he was in the care of the police. He got unbalanced and began to howl and barked the door to a place he does not recognize as his own. I show him the leash. He is at his door in one sec. . . let's go. His first task is to avoid a river. . . they off with me to the yard. Iron Man is very hard some dogs much too thin but wearing a well groomed caramel and cream colored coat. He sniffs a lot the premises. . . and jumps very high for treats that he does not snatch from my hand. He can even sit for them. He is quite welcoming of other dogs and even does not reply when a little dog "growls" at him. If another volunteer or staff joins us in a pen, Iron Man goes to them for hugs. Some dogs surprise you.. they behave at first one way and after spending some time with them they uncoil all kinds of feelings, good or bad. Iron Man was My treat of the day. He came at first to sit then lay at my feet. His eyes were very sweet. He licked my hands. He proceeded to come with his half body on my lap, then the whole of him. . . rolled on his back and demanded kisses and caresses. A real pussycat. Looking back at our pictures together, I could see that Iron Man looked very happy. Iron Man is a strong dog, beautiful, sociable and affectionate. His care has not been optimal to say the least, but I can see that he knows what the good life is and is ready to be pampered. . . by you. Come and meet Iron Man at the Manhattan Care Center and take him home as your forever best friend.
