Looking for either laborer, handyman or contractor to remove and replace the siding on just one side of home in Papillion. The vertical 4x9 sheeting has deteriorated on the south side of the house and we wish to replace it with similar siding. I can assist in the project and can supply the materials. NOTE: This project got delayed from the Fall of 2014 due to the need to remove a dead tree from our property before the onset of winter. Also, since the original posting we have determined the need to replace some siding on the east side of the house. Project may also include repainting the.
