Are you a white female between the ages of 18 and 30 who has used an indoor tanning bed in the last 12 months?

Researchers at Georgetown University are looking for young adult women to volunteer for a research study about indoor tanning. The principal investigator is Dr. Darren Mays. The purpose of the study is to learn more about how young adult women use indoor tanning beds and how that may relate to skin cancer risk.

What's involved?

- â€¢ One brief online survey, less than 30 minutes
- â€¢ Some women will be asked to provide an optional DNA sample (saliva)
- â€¢ Some women will be asked to complete one or two optional brief telephone interviews
- â€¢ Receive up to $70 in gift cards for your time to merchants like Target or Starbucks!

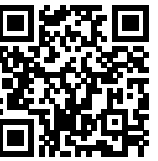

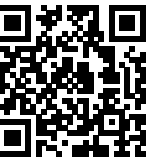

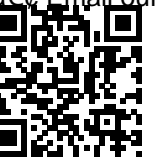

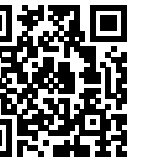

Requirements:

- â€¢ Female between 18 and 30 years old
- â€¢ You are white, non-Hispanic
- â€¢ You have used a tanning bed, tanning booth, or another indoor tanning device in the last 12 months

How do I sign up?
