Professional tutor offers tutoring via Skype in math and physics at the high school, college, and grad/professional school levels, as well as help with standardized test math and physics - SAT, GRE, GMAT, MCAT, and more!

I have a bachelor's degree in math and physics from Dartmouth (GPA 3.99/4.00, class valedictorian), a master's in physics from Yale (GPA 3.91/4.00), and a Ph.D. in theoretical condensed matter physics from Dartmouth. I also have 10+ years of experience as a teaching assistant, tutor and study group leader. My standardized test scores are: SAT I Math & Verbal - 800 each, SAT II Math - 800, General GRE Math & Analytical - 800 each, Physics Subject GRE - 880 (87th percentile).

I am a patient, reliable and supportive teacher, and have helped students of all ages, academic backgrounds and knowledge levels achieve their goals. My teaching philosophy is based on identifying each student's needs very early on in the tutoring process and designing a personalized study plan that best fits the student's own learning style, interests and objectives.

I charge $25 per hour and accept payment via bank transfer or PayPal. My resume and references are available upon request. I have a very flexible schedule. Please feel free to email me anytime with any questions you might.
