A vintage home perched on Cottage Hill with lots of charm and character. An easy walk into town with off street parking, a shed and a fenced rear back yard. Just a few steps from the driveway, a bluestone patio, lined with river rock, leads you into the home. An expansive open side porch, great for entertaining and dining al fresco, is adjacent to the covered front porch and main entrance. Enter into the living room with beautiful antique flooring, lots of windows for plenty of sunlight, and a period built-in mission style cabinet to house ones collectibles. A large kitchen with room for a sizable table and chairs, also leads out onto the screened-in porch and the rear back yard. A refreshed bathroom and laundry room with new windows and the basement entrance complete the first floor. The main bedroom still has hardwood flooring and plenty of windows. A second bedroom has wall to wall carpeting. Freshly painted and well maintained, this home is ideal for a weekender or a full time residence. Surrounded by mature trees and an ample yard create a country atmosphere, yet really close to the center of town, the Delaware River and New Hope. Garage is not available to the.
