Hello craigslist. I am a 24 year old female (amateur) photographer looking to start shooting portraits. I've been doing a lot of landscapes and cityscapes but it's starting to get boring af. I want to shoot women, mostly, but I wouldn't turn down a dude if you look right. I can't pay you, but you can have as many of the photos as you like. I'm looking for all types of looks, you don't need to have experience, I just would like to link up with some interesting folks that want to shoot some cool shit. I live in downtown Portland and would probably want to shoot around there, but we can figure out details later.

If you want to drop me a line or a photo of yourself, please do!

*the photos in the ad are not taken by me, but they're an example of what I'd like to.
