

Test New Printers for HP

Location Idaho
<https://www.genclassifieds.com/x-510280-z>

Hewlett-Packard is looking for people to evaluate next generation printers in their home or office.

We are looking for people to test features of the printers and are willing to provide us feedback on their experience.

There is no cost to you. The printer and other supplies (ink) will be provided for testing. You will be compensated for your time.

We have several programs coming up in your area in 2015. If you are interested, please use the link below to sign up and we will get you more information on specific programs in your area.
