YAMAHA R1

This bike has been sitting for 3 years my friend just changed all the fluids and it starts right up

It was a track day bike and will be sold with a bill of sale only

Good clean vin #. So you can get a title and make it a street bike again. If you like.

No head or tail lights

Many good parts but bike is not pretty. Looking

Has some parts that where painted (break calipers etc). And he didn't do the best job.....missing a couple fairing clips , chain guard etc

But if you want a project that you can ride as you work on it. This one might be good for you

Bike has a clean vin number and is not a stolen bike etc .
