Why Is it that a Drug attic a drunk or a mentally challenged person, can get help on almost anything?
 If you give food and money to them they never have a need to change if you help them to help them selves change is not a choice.

I lost full use of my feet three years ago filled for disability a year later been turned down twice, yet I have a friend works and does what he wants but went to get told he was depressed and got his disability in a year. Oh there's no medical for me or help other then food stamps, till I get approved then the state will help. I started building things for people out of my wheelchair, and if you ever used tools you know there to high to just go out and buy. I cant climb latter or bend to the floor so this is about all I can do to live. I can walk some now but its limited. I just want to live my home is simple my needs few and not on going. I worked my who;e life and would be happy to keep building things. But orders are few and I have turned down a lot of work because of not having tools I needed. I applied for disability but turned down still trying but I would be happier if I can get tools and work. So I'm hopping to find someone who might help me. My gas bill to the home owner is $200. and I need a Band saw, a drill press a planer, and clamps lots of clamps. I need a mower a weed eater the yards bad. I do need tools. I have got down to sandals on my feet. no shoes left last pair of lace up work bots died lol. I would love a nice TV and or DVD player but that's not a need. i do need a washer and a stove electric, anything would help thanks PLEASE NO CASH I"LL MAKE THAT WITH THE TOOLS.
