Hello Providence,

A team of researchers from Loyola University Chicago is currently recruiting participants for a study examining the ways in which gay, lesbian, and bisexual individuals manage their sexual identities in the workplace. We would like to extend an invitation to anyone who meets the required criteria. We are looking for participants who:

1. Are a U.S. citizen
2. Are age 18 or older
3. Currently employed
4. Identify as lesbian, gay, or bisexual (LGB)

â€¢ Note: You may prefer to use labels other than 'lesbian, gay, and bisexual' to describe your sexual orientation (e.g., 'queer,' 'pansexual'). We use the term LGB in this survey as a convenience, and we ask for your understanding if the term does not completely capture your sexual identity.

If you agree to participate, you will be asked questions about your experiences at your current workplace and your beliefs about your sexual identity. You may choose not to answer some questions, and you may also choose to stop participating at any time once you have begun. Your responses will not be linked to identifying information such as your IP address.

Completing this study should take no longer than 30 minutes. You will be entered into a raffle to win one of two $25 Amazon gift cards for your voluntary participation.

If you meet the criteria above and are interested in participating in this study, the survey may be accessed at <https://surveys.luc.edu/opinio6/s?s>
