ATTENTION GUITAR PLAYERS

Make Music Nashville is Nashville's only non-profit, "do it yourself" festival which takes place on June 21st every year. The festival features organized concerts, informal performances and outreach programming by professionals and amateurs of all genres and ages and takes place all across the city. We are hosting a free guitar jam a Sevier Park this Sunday, and I would love if you guys would join in on the celebration to help support our local scene! It's from 2-3pm. We are featuring a Martin Guitar giveaway to give out during the event, free packs of Ernie Ball strings and songbooks to the first 200 participants and a guitar jam led by renowned musician Andy May.
