Looking to rehome 3 lion head rabbits. They are all black. One is 3 year old female that has produced 6 litters in the past. We have two of her male offspring that are 1 year old. We are wanting to rehome them to different homes or places that have separate cages. We got rid of our breeding male last year because we felt the lady bunny needed a break, and we did not want inner breeding. She is a lovely bunny, all are outdoor rabbits housed in a cage that allowed roaming. We are looking for $10 for each bunny but are flexible. We love these guys and just want to make sure they are going to loving families. We are looking to rehome them as soon as possible. Thanks!
