A perfect blend of modern design swirled with vintage charm; welcome home to 466 E Ellis Street, a tastefully updated bungalow inspired home in a quiet area of North Long Beach. Let the 1920s style capture your heart, enter this recently repainted home from a pillared front porch and sweep into the spacious living room, bathed in both natural light and original charm from the decorative fireplace surrounded by built-in bookshelves, thick baseboards and casement windows, and rich hardwood flooring. For those that wish to entertain lavishly, thrill your guests with your culinary preparations in the extremely open kitchen; massive enough to contain a broad eat-in space. Highly updated, this fine kitchen features warm stone like counters, gleaming fixtures and hardware, plentiful cabinetry, and distinctive original fold out ironing board. Each of the three large bedrooms are wonderful spaces to enjoy; airy from the easy breezes and natural light from the many windows. The classic bathroom has been sharpened with crisp subway tile details, pedestal sink, updated lighting fixtures, claw foot soaking tub, and oh so nice heated floor. Other important details are met within: central heating and air on the inside and a detached garage with extra-long driveway for additional parking. For more information, please call us at EXT 219.
