

Expecting couple displaced in sockeye fire

Location Alaska https://www.genclassifieds.com/x-512583-z

We just got back to Alaska where we call home and where we want to have our little one in about a month, after a short stint out of state, when we got the bad news Sunday.....fire was headed our way. One week ago we found an affordable little cabin to stay until we could get on our feet, but unfortunately it was lost. My fiancé is medically retired Army and trying to find work, but he has limitations, so still currently unemployed, and I'm due at the end of next month! We don't know where to go, but hoping someone can help us! We can do live in work such as security or at storage places, look over your place that's vacant or on the market, maybe even lease purchase to help with payments if the place fits us. Our income is extremely limited at this time until work is found or we have money coming in from the GI bill for schooling. Please let us know if you have something or you'd like to see resumes or references! Thank you!
