I need a musical collaborator. It doesn't matter what your instrument of choice is, but I just need one person interested for now. I'm up for anything as long as it is original and not afraid to get heavy, but not entirely focused on heavy. Looking to build more than a 2 person lineup, but one at a time. Vocalist may be male or female, I may possibly bring on both if a good match is made. Serious, forward thinkers, with stable life styles only. 21+ Should live in or within reasonable distance of.
