Attention all investors,
We are investors with Rapid Housing Solutions, LLC and are looking for investor buyers who are interested in "wholesale" deals in Kansas City. We do our own marketing and have a knack for finding great deals and only great deals. We do not waste time trying to squeeze the numbers on properties that don't work. Don't you hate that? We're looking for people that will be repeat buyers and will do most of the leg work and have a team of people helping us with the process on each property we come across. Please email me for more information and we look forward to working with you soon.
