Hi...I need a well spoken professional type...either male or female...at least late 20s or up to any age where you can present yourself according to strict guidelines.

You will be playing the part of one of these personnas. Male or female executive, upscale soccer mom, very sharp entrepreneurial business owner.

I need you to pose as a customer in an upscale environment. Your grammar must be impeccable, and you need to be credible....you will be earning at least $200 per hr in most cases...sometimes more, VERY seldom any less. or more for just a few hrs of doing this. Your background will be checked, but not extensively....just crimminal and fica score (over 600+) to make sure I can trust you with a very large sum of money. Absolutely NOTHING is illegal about the gig.

I need this done right away. Must interview at a public location the first time. If you're good, I have more.
