Married white attractive wealthy guy here looking for the assistance of a drop dead gorgeous white female 35 or younger to help me create that spark again in my marriage. My wife no longer sees me as a catch to other ladies because I'm so consumed with my career and God only knows what she does behind my back so I want her to see that someone attractive, smart and fun is into me. You would be pretending but I want you to make it feel as real as possible and to be honest if your the right female willing to do the right things to make this scenario seem real it might actually boost my confidence. I'm am very willing to pay you well, I'm sure any lady that can walk into a room and turn heads / make other wives jealous knows there value. I ask that you send me photos of your self, and your feelings regarding this situation as well as your needed salary. Making this as real as possible and in the end making my wife jealous and see that I'm a handsome catch is the most important thing to me outside of my career right now so feel free to respond and let's start.
