Are you new or newer to the modeling industry? Are you serious about becoming a model?

I am looking to manage someone who is serious about making progress in the modeling world. I have worked with tons of models in the past and I am ready to get back into the management business. If you have patience and the will to take this seriously, we can make money and successful moves together. If interested, please send the following:

- Name
- Age
- Height/Weight
- Area of town or City and State
- Please state if you have your own transportation
- Include 2-3 pictures of yourself (please make sure at least one of them is a full body photo)
- Best way of contacting you

Once I receive your email, I will let respond to you.

Serious inquiries only. This is not for dating, this is for business purposes so please treat this seriously.

Thank you!
