Hello, my name is Sarah.

I am looking to rehome my cat Cooper. I am moving and unfortunately cannot take him with me. :(I am doing everything I can to ensure he goes to a loving and caring home. Before responding to my post please READ it.

He is a little over a year old. He is neutered. He loves to play and he loves treats. I currently feed him Purina Indoor Cat Chow and on occasion he will get soft food. He would do best in a home with no other pets and no small children. He is very independent, he loves to sleep and be lazy and sticks to himself for the most part. He would be great for someone living on their own just wanting a small animal for company. I will say he is NOT the type of cat that likes to cuddle and be held constantly. He loves to be pet and held sometimes but like I mentioned earlier he is very independent.

Please DO NOT repsond to this if you are not serious about adpoting him and taking him in as part of your family. Also please DO NOT respond if you have other pets or small children. I have had multiple responses on my last post but every person has had other pets or children in their homes. I am being specific about the type of home he needs for a reason. He has been around a dog and he was not comforable and he is a little too playful for small children. I love him and want him to go to the best home possible! I will not take him to a shelter. Please feel free to email me if you are interested or have other questions. I have a scratch pad, scratch post, kitty cube, lots of toys, a dome litter box, and a litter.
