The cats go by the name Nickels (male) and Seven (female), they just turned a year old and are very playful. Nickels which is the darker colored one has a beautiful stripped pattern and is very playful. Seven who is white and grey loves to talk to you and to be pet. Both cats are spayed and neutered, up to date on shots and are chipped. Cats are very good with children. Cats need a home with true cat lovers where they will get plenty of playtime, love and affection. If interested please contact me (only serious inquiries please) . With the cats the new owner will get a cat tree, cat liter box along with toys and grooming brushes along with a cat bed and food. Make them a new members of your.
