This updated gem in Denver's Villa Park Neighborhood has it all! With fresh newer interior paint, this home really shines! The all-new bathroom has been redone with new tile flooring & bathtub surround and new fixtures. There are three bedrooms all with ample closet space. The main bedroom is the largest and features new carpet. There is also a good sized laundry with access to the backyard. The cellar features plenty of storage space. The front yard is large enough for the kids to play along with the side yard, and patio/garden area in the back. This home is super clean, move in ready, and won't last long!
