Hi there. I am posting because I am VERY interested in finding a nanny position nearby.

I am looking for a steady and stable, long term nanny job where I can become another member of a family by bonding with the kids and parents or to assist in a childcare or preschool and help children grow and learn. Please be willing to make a long term commitment!!!

I am CPR and First Aid certified. I have over 12+ years experience as a babysitter and nanny as well as worked in a preschool and home daycares. Over 10 years experience with a special needs such as Down syndrome, autism, and behavioral disabilities.

I have a car and insurance and a good driving record.. I am always on time, work hard, and make sure to never leave something undone. The child(ren)s safety and well-being is always number one!

As far as your little ones go, child care and helping children grow safe, healthy, and happy are my expertise. I love kids with a passion and have worked with them for over 10 years now! I can't imagine not being involved with children in my life. I tried other professions and desire to work with children above all. In addition, I am a great cook I took one year of culinary school classes so I love to cook and prep dinners and oddly enough I enjoy cleaning, organizing toys, doing dishes and laundry :) I also am an excellent errand runner and grocery shopper.

I am also not a plop in front of TV nanny! I enjoy interacting with the children I am taking care of and that includes playing board games, arts and crafts, helping older kids with homework, reading books to any age, and coloring. I also enjoy going to the park, playing with toys, taking them on walks or to ride their bikes and scooters and jump roping or dancing to music. I even like taking kids bowling, or swimming in the pool. Depending on age, for infants and babies that includes music time, walks in strollers, bath time, play with age appropriate toys, nap time and more. I like interacting with swinging babies, tummy time, and exercising or playing with babies. Finally, because I love food I enjoy teaching kids about and having them help me with baking or decorating cookies or cupcakes, making or taking kids out to lunch or dinner or creating their own creations.

Let me know if you think I am a good fit and if you would like to speak to me.

I have a resume and references I can email you. I would like to start ASAP.

Thank you,
Alana
