I'm looking into a shared workshop space that should accommodate four or five artists. I have a handful locations in mind, in and around Ocean Springs. All are modest spaces, with one or two 10x10 storage rooms and a larger central work area. Ideally four or five people would pay 100-200 a month. Each artist would have their own key and 24 hour access.

I'm a professional painter and I like to work large and build my own canvases and frames. It would have to be three or four really special folks for me to feel comfortable sharing a space, but I've done it before and I think it could work again. So respond via the email link and tell me about you and your work and I'll tell you about myself.

Alternately, if you have a space already, and would like to split the rent, let me know

Hope to hear from you,
