Hi!

Mr. Dix here. I'm launching a board game and I'm looking for silly people in the Boise area to be in my crowdfunding video! I can't give out too much information on how the game is played, but it involves silly drawings of wieners. Yes, wieners. It's very cartoon-ish and I would compare it to elementary rowdiness, not adult industry stuff.

I'm looking for a handful people who are comfortable playing a board game that involves wieners. This video shoot will last 1-2 hours only as we only need a quick shot of people playing the game with friends. Compensation is $20 for the couple of hours, as well as bragging rights. Because this game is AWESOME! Please know, you WILL NOT be asked to act or insinuate any sexual acts. You're clothes will stay completely on. This is NOT an advertisement for adult industry material. It's a game meant to be played by silly people who think wieners are as funny as we do.

If you're interested, please reply and we'll get back to you with details. Please send a headshot so we know what you look like. You can then decide if you're still interested. Sorry, we just can't give out the details of the game quite.
