Open Enrollment is over! Now what?

Okay so Open Enrollment is over. But there are many reasons that may qualify you for a Special Enrollment Period. Which means, you can enroll in health coverage at any time of the year. All you need to do is look at the list below and see if one of these qualifying life events applies to you.

If you have had any of these events come up in the past 60 days or will in the NEXT 60 days

Call me! I can help you apply for a subsidy from the government that may make your Health Coverage little to no cost! If you do not qualify for a (SEP) Special Enrollment Period. That's okay I can still get you a Short Term Medical plan that's Absolutely affordable. Call me! I have a large variety of companies to offer. You don't have to go without health coverage! My goal is to help people to find coverage they can truly afford. I hope to be your favorite family Insurance agent.

Thanks
 Victor

Life events that may qualify you for a Special Enrollment Period

- Getting married
- Having a baby
- Adopting a child or placing a child for adoption or foster care
- Losing other health coverage
- Moving to a new residence
- Gaining citizenship or lawful presence in the U.S.

Gaining or continuing status as a member of an Indian tribe or an Alaska Native shareholder. Members of federally recognized Indian tribes and Alaska native shareholders can sign up for individual plans at any time throughout the year.

Leaving incarceration

For people who enroll in a workplace company plan, leaving a company will become eligible for open enrollment tax breaks or cost-sharing reduction.
